

Cancer screenings and care

Your Medical Ally is here for you.

If you or someone in your family needs information about cancer screening, prevention, treatment, or coping with illness, you have resources available through your Medical Ally.

Your Medical Ally can help you:

- Understand your specific type of cancer and available treatment options
- Find top-ranked, in-network oncologists, and treatment facilities
- Get a second opinion from a leading oncologist
- Have an informative and thorough conversation with your doctor by providing questions to ask at your next appointment
- Cope with stress and anxiety

Make better, more confident health care decisions with your Medical Ally

- 100% confidential support from your Medical Ally
- Independent from your employer or health plan
- No cost to eligible employees

Your Medical Ally offers confidential one-on-one support so you can focus on the health of you and your loved ones. Your Medical Ally can help you understand a diagnosis, treatment options, get a second opinion, and more.